

Entered at the Postoffice at Accomac, C. H., Va., as second-class matter.

The primary election of today will decide, who are to be candidates of the Democratic party at the May election. The method of being adopted to promote harmony among members of the same political family and to settle amicably the claims of the candidates to the offices, without outside interference, it is to be hoped that the canvass has been conducted fairly and pleasantly, and that the result will be cheerfully acquiesced in by the unsuccessful candidates and their friends. With the long array of contestants for the various offices, somebody naturally, in the popular vernacular of the day, "is going to get left," but that is no reason why he or they should be kickers in the party traces and endeavor to sow seeds of discord because they may think their merits have not been properly recognized by an unappreciative public. Submitting their claims to the primary the candidates and their friends participating in honor bound themselves to support the nominees, not begrudgingly but cheerfully and cordially, and the high character of the candidates generally, induces the belief in us, that such will be the course on their part. On the other hand, while espousing the cause of no one either through our columns or personally, except to cast our vote as we deem best and pledging ourselves to support cheerfully the nominees, we protest that their victory shall not be celebrated by bonfires, illuminations or cannonading, according to advices received, at the risk of engendering feelings of discontent in our party family which the primary was intended to soothe rather than to excite. Happily for the good of the party and in the interest of the public, the aspirants for the offices in this election are generally so well fitted for them that the offices will be filled worthily, whoever may be the nominees, and we but voice the sentiment of the public in giving expression to it. Indeed, many voters unable to make a choice as to the candidates for several of the offices and being satisfied to accept any of them as the nominees of the party, will not vote at all for several of the candidates. To rejoice over the defeated candidates, therefore, is not only not in harmony with the spirit of the primary, but may lead to feuds which will defeat the objects for which it was intended.

We presume, there are very few of our readers, whether Democrats or Republicans, who are so pleased with the reduction in the price of sugar, and the most of them are probably aware that the reduction is due to the fact, that the tariff tax, which the Republicans have been telling them was paid by the foreign producer was taken off. If free sugar is such a pleasing and comfortable thing, especially to the poor, does it not occur to them also that other things ought to be made free? Would they not like to buy their clothing, tinware, dry goods &c., also cheaper, and if so, has it not occurred to them that Tariff Reform is needed and that the Democratic party which advocates it is their best friend and entitled to their active support?

The A. P. Hill Monument Association was chartered in Richmond, Monday, by Judge Welford. The object of the organization is to build a monument to the General at the intersection of the Hermitage road and Laburnum avenue, near the city, to which place the remains will be moved.

Captain Drinkwater, keeper of Sea Tack Life Saving Station, Va., who was censured for failure to use all means at his command for saving life, at the time of the wreck of the bark Dictator, has resigned his position.

It has been ascertained that only two of the men killed by the New Orleans mob were Italian subjects, and both of them were fugitives from Italian justice charged with murder.

The Episcopal Convocation of Southwest Virginia, in session at Lynchburg, strongly favors a division of the diocese of Virginia.

W. N. Stevens, the first colored man sent to the Virginia Senate, and who also served several terms in the lower house of the State Legislature, died in Petersburg, Saturday.

Malvern Hill, located about twelve miles below Richmond, Va., the scene of one of the most famous battles during the late war, has just been sold to Wm. H. Hale, of New York city, for $17,250.

Wm. Muscoe, alias Wm. Darden, the negro who murdered Policeman George Seal in Charlottesville, Va., December 13, 1888, was hanged in the jail yard there Tuesday morning. He made a full confession.

Richmond, Va., April 21.—The city council in joint session tonight, adopted a resolution requesting that the remains of Gen. Joseph E. Johnston be interred in Richmond. The resolution will be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Lucy Long, one of Gen. R. E. Lee's riding horses, the one presented him by J. E. B. Stuart, died a few days ago. She received all the honors of a decent burial on the farm, three miles from Lexington, where she has been kept at the expense of the State. She was thirty-two years old.

LONDON, April 22.—The negotiations between Mr. Ellis, of the American committee on the Virginia debt and Messrs. Lubbock, Liddell and Daniel, constituting the English advisory board, resulted in negotiations for a settlement of the debt based upon the plan of November, 1890, recommended by Messrs. Cleveland, Bayard, Phelps and others.

Richmond, Va., April 22.—Judge Robert Hughes, sitting as judge of the United States Circuit Court, today quashed the indictments in the cases known as the "Jackson ward cases." These were proceedings instituted by Republicans against well-known and highly respected Democrats of this city, charging them with obstructing the negroes at the polls in the contest of 1888. The cases have been pending from that time until the present.

Judge Coles, of the county court of Pittsylvania, has refused to grant liquor licenses at railway stations. In rendering his decision Judge Coles said nine-tenths of the indictments made in his court from these railway points were due to whiskey, and that numbers of the deaths on the railroad recently were caused by the same agency and about these stations, and that the public safety and the welfare of the travelling public demanded that the sale of liquor at points where railway employees could get it should be suppressed.

A Great Event
In one's life is the discovery of a remedy for some long-standing malady. The poison of Scrofula is in your blood. You inherited it from your ancestors. Will you transmit it to your offspring? In the great majority of cases, both Consumption and Catarrh originate in Scrofula. It is supposed to be the primary source of many other derangements of the body. Begin at once to cleanse your blood with the standard alternative,

Ayer's Sarsaparilla
"For several months I was troubled with scrofulous eruptions over the whole body. My appetite was bad, and my system so prostrated that I was unable to work. After trying several remedies in vain, I resolved to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and did so with such good effect that less than one bottle restored my health." and strength. The rapidity of the cure astonished me, as I expected the process to be long and tedious."—Frederick Marz Fernandes, Villa Nova de Goya, Portugal.
"For many years I was a sufferer from scrofula, until about three years ago, when I began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, since which the disease has entirely disappeared. A little child of mine, who was troubled with the same complaint, has also been cured by this medicine."—H. Emsitt, Ayres, Neb.

The Great Question of to-day
Have you bought your Spring Goods? If you have not, the answer is, go to A. H. G. Mears as soon as you possibly can. He is now running Two Floors, both full and complete. He has been compelled to move his stock of HATS and SHOES to the second floor to make room for the very large and varied stock which he has just gotten in. His goods were bought with the utmost caution and with the intention
1st, To buy the latest styles.
2nd, To obtain the best quality.
3rd, To procure all the desirable shades.
4th, To get the best prices.
He can beat his competitors in prices for following reasons:
1st, He buys direct from importers and manufacturers.
2nd, He buys for cash.
3rd, He saves all his discounts.
Having put them in his store at the least possible expense, he is willing to give you the advantage of low prices he has thus secured.
The special attention of the ladies is invited to his fine line of serges in all desirable shades at 50 cents per yard, which can't be beat in any city, fine line of henriettes from 60 cents to $1 per yard, fine line of suitings from $1 to $1.65, surah silk all shades to match 60 cents, gyme to match from 25 to 35 cents per yard, all shades of worsted from 15 to 40 cents, gingham from 6 to 10 cents, prints any shade 5 cents, oil colors 64 cents, a very select line of bleached and unbleached domestic, Fruit of the Loom 9 cents per yard, the largest assortment of white embroidered dress goods ever shown in Accomac bought direct from the importers, fine hemstitched from 40 cents to $1.25 per yard for which you have to pay at other places from 60 cents to $1.50, a fine line of imported ribbons from 5 to 25 cents which cost you elsewhere one-third more, Victoria lawns from 7 to 14 cents, Torchon lace at about one-half what you usually pay for it, and the largest line of SHOES, best quality and lowest prices ever offered in Accomac, costing from 50 cents to $5, guaranteed by Monroe Brothers, Philadelphia, and Young, Creighton & Digges, and Evert & Bro., Baltimore, having exclusive control of the latter in Wachapreague. And the ladies are requested to call at once and not mind the distance if they would save money—nor be deterred by the gas advertisements and misstatements that you will be imposed upon—but call and buy goods with the guarantee that everything will be just as stated—and he is so anxious for you to call before his stock is broken up and to induce you to do so, will give for a limited time an oil painting 3x31 feet with solid gilt frame to every lady purchasing for cash $15 worth of goods.
He wishes to remind the gentlemen also that they have not been forgotten, and offers them: Medium suits of clothes at $7 worth $9, blue flannel suits at $8.50 worth $10, boy's suits $1.25 to $5—and they must call early or will lose a bargain as stock is limited—also a large line of hats and gents' furnishing goods, Farmers' Friend plows and castings, hardware, all size nails 3 cents per pound, a full and complete line of first-class groceries at lowest prices, molasses 25, 40, 50 and 60 cents per gallon, coal oil 175¢ test 124 cents per gallon, washing soda 2 cents per pound, starch 5 cents, Rumford's yeast powders 10 cents per bottle, granulated sugar 5 cents per pound—also a new line of oil shades with fancy dadoes made to order from 80 cents to $1.25.
In conclusion he has to say, he thinks he has everything you desire—and if told that the things he offers so cheap are leaders, he replies that all then are leaders, as his entire stock is sold in same proportion as those quoted—and will meet all prices however low if of same quality. You may see this advertisement only a few times, and you can clip it therefore as a reminder, but whether you do or not you can see the proprietor at Wachapreague, and find him always ready to extend to old and new customers a cordial welcome. When you call ask to be shown the 5 and 10 cent counters on second floor.

And the ladies are requested to call at once and not mind the distance if they would save money—nor be deterred by the gas advertisements and misstatements that you will be imposed upon—but call and buy goods with the guarantee that everything will be just as stated—and he is so anxious for you to call before his stock is broken up and to induce you to do so, will give for a limited time an oil painting 3x31 feet with solid gilt frame to every lady purchasing for cash $15 worth of goods.
He wishes to remind the gentlemen also that they have not been forgotten, and offers them: Medium suits of clothes at $7 worth $9, blue flannel suits at $8.50 worth $10, boy's suits $1.25 to $5—and they must call early or will lose a bargain as stock is limited—also a large line of hats and gents' furnishing goods, Farmers' Friend plows and castings, hardware, all size nails 3 cents per pound, a full and complete line of first-class groceries at lowest prices, molasses 25, 40, 50 and 60 cents per gallon, coal oil 175¢ test 124 cents per gallon, washing soda 2 cents per pound, starch 5 cents, Rumford's yeast powders 10 cents per bottle, granulated sugar 5 cents per pound—also a new line of oil shades with fancy dadoes made to order from 80 cents to $1.25.
In conclusion he has to say, he thinks he has everything you desire—and if told that the things he offers so cheap are leaders, he replies that all then are leaders, as his entire stock is sold in same proportion as those quoted—and will meet all prices however low if of same quality. You may see this advertisement only a few times, and you can clip it therefore as a reminder, but whether you do or not you can see the proprietor at Wachapreague, and find him always ready to extend to old and new customers a cordial welcome. When you call ask to be shown the 5 and 10 cent counters on second floor.

IMPERIAL GUANOS.
Our Potash and 10 Per Cent. Brands
—Specially adapted to—
Round Potatoes, Peas, Beans and Onions.
Used by the leading truckers of Tidewater Virginia in preference to PERUVIAN.
Warranted to contain no inferior material like Plaster, Marl, South Carolina Rock, Ground Leather, Hoof and Horn Meal, Castor Pomace, etc., often used as "filling" and "make weight" or to "make analysis"—everything of which the guano is composed is used because of its real worth to the crop—not because it can be bought cheap.
Our Super Phosphate Special for sweet potatoes and corn, the earliest and largest producer and therefore the cheapest fertilizer sold on the market. Orders south of Exmore will be furnished same day—north, next morning.

Manufactured by

The Great Question of to-day
Have you bought your Spring Goods? If you have not, the answer is, go to A. H. G. Mears as soon as you possibly can. He is now running Two Floors, both full and complete. He has been compelled to move his stock of HATS and SHOES to the second floor to make room for the very large and varied stock which he has just gotten in. His goods were bought with the utmost caution and with the intention
1st, To buy the latest styles.
2nd, To obtain the best quality.
3rd, To procure all the desirable shades.
4th, To get the best prices.
He can beat his competitors in prices for following reasons:
1st, He buys direct from importers and manufacturers.
2nd, He buys for cash.
3rd, He saves all his discounts.
Having put them in his store at the least possible expense, he is willing to give you the advantage of low prices he has thus secured.
The special attention of the ladies is invited to his
